The Coastal Sound Youth Choir is fast becoming well known across British Columbia for their creative and unique approach to choral music.

Extremely enthusiastic and very energetic, this close-knit group of teenagers and young adults maintain a busy performance schedule, along with yearly retreats and concert tours. CSYC's performances have been described as "soul-elevating", "truly imaginative" and "vibrating with life". In 2010 and 2011, the Coastal Sound Youth Choir shared the stage with renowned vocal groups The Nylons, musica intima, The Shirleys and The Good Noise Gospel Choir, as well as recording a song with Nikki Yanofsky. The choir also enjoys spending social time together at informal gatherings and events. This July, the youth choir will be a host choir for the Coastal Sound International Choral Festival, where hundreds of singers come together from around the world for a week of performance and sharing. The Coastal Sound Youth Choir has recently released its' first cd – "Lights" and the singers are looking forward to a concert tour to Great Britain in the summer of 2012.
